Lovely Tip

Always have a Plan B for an outdoor wedding

From the very beginning of the planning stage be sure to speak with your venue and/or wedding planner about a Plan B. You don't want to be caught blindsided and having to scramble for a solution the day of. Now it is impossible to account for every possible scenario, but one can aim to cover as many bases as possible. It is better to be prepared than unprepared is my motto.

Visit my blog and facebook page for all the latest trends, inspiration, real weddings, the best vendor list and so much more.
